

one. When must go. I hand. She pulled me all down on burst in the who it was Robertson of

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's church, Rev. Fr. Agatho officiating, and burial will be in the local Catholic cemetery.

FORMER DOVER WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. Janet Morgan Dies at Home in Carnegie, Pa.—Daughter Lives in This City

Mrs. Janet Morgan, 65, for two years a resident of Canal Dover and well known here, died of paralysis at her home in Carnegie, Pa., at 7:30 o'clock last evening. Mrs. Morgan was the mother of Mrs. Howard Richardson of this city. Coming here from Carnegie, the Morgan family resided in this city two years, going back to Carnegie last June. One son and three daughters survive.

Applied To Foreign Postage

Through misinterpretation by someone of a new postal ruling which applies only to foreign postage. It was announced recently that in all cases of insufficient payment on articles outside of first class mail double the amount of the deficiency would be charged and that the articles would not be dispatched at all unless some part of the postage had been prepaid. Postmaster J. J. Roderick said today that the order applied only to foreign mail and that there had been no new ruling on domestic mail.

Grand Theatre Tonight

"A Good Sport," is a very pleasing and entertaining two part comedy, introducing Herbert Prior in the role of a polo playing, monoped Englishman and Mabel Trunnale as the leading lady. The play introduces the studio and the camera of a large moving picture concern and is instructive as well as highly amusing. This excellent film will be shown at the Grand tonight.

1 bars of any soap like by buying a 5c. pk. of King's Good Health Flour.

ed low bidder for the short storm sewer line in East Front street from the Canal road to Cross street and for another short line in Walnut street from the canal bank in W. Front-st and W. Second-st, when he offered to do the work for $487.05. was awarded the contract by Service Director Salmon yesterday.

Bids were opened at noon. There were two other bidders: Adam Schwab, New Philadelphia, $504.35; and Norman & Sons, Coshocton, $642.50.

BOLIVAR TEACHERS VISIT

C. J. LeBold of Bolivar who is superintendent of the Lawrence township schools and a number of his teachers visited the public schools in this city yesterday. The teachers who accompanied him were Miss Marjorie Tomer, Miss Helen Schilling, Miss Verna Lebold and Victor G. Streb. They visited the various grades in the elementary schools and saw the newly equipped manual training room.

RETIRED FARMER NEAR DEATH

George Weaver, wealthy retired farmer, living in North Walnut street, this city, is critically ill from a stroke of paralysis sustained yesterday. Mr. Weaver suffered a first stroke more than a year ago and has been an invalid since that time.

Leaves Son in New Phila.

Mrs. J. A. Thrapp, 50, wife of Rev. J. A. Thrapp of West Lafayette, and mother of Ridgley Thrapp of New Philadelphia died at her home last evening of Bright's disease.

Died At Coshocton

Mrs. French Cochran, 51, mother of Harry North of this city, died yesterday at her home in Newcastle Coshocton county. Death followed a stroke of paralysis a week previous. She is survived by a second husband and several children.

ed the weather is unfavorable. event, all who are interested will be welcome to inspect the plant and meet the promoters.

WINED, DINED, JAILED

YOUNG MAN IS CHARGED WITH HAVING SECURED CASH ON BOGUS CHECKS.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 17.—After being wine and dined by prominent business men and introduced into some of the best society of the city, a young stranger, calling himself Henry O. Hess, who came here and interested members of the local chamber of commerce in plans which he proposed for the establishment of an industry of great importance, was arrested as he was about to leave the city. He was charged with having secured several hundred dollars on bogus checks indorsed by prominent men.

GODFREY PLAYS STAR GAME

Local Youth Stars When O. S. U. Defeats Dennison College—Englehart Praised

Ernie Godfrey, former Dover high school star, played a wonderful game at guard for Ohio State University basketball team when his team defeated Dennison college on Saturday night by a score of 29 to 23. The Cleveland Plain Dealer gives credit for the victory to Godfrey and Cherry, who is also known here. The defeat of Dennison was the greatest victory of the season for O. S. U.

A New Philadelphia boy, Ray Englehart, also won laurels on the basketball floor Saturday night by playing a great game for Western Reserve when they defeated Wooster university.

Billiard Hall Winners

F. Wilson was winner of the high score at the Green billiard hall Factory street last week with 28-11. J. Raine won second place with 24-11.

FT PROBE

TS COUNSEL FIRST HEAR. WEDSDAY.

17.—The Sullivan committee has District Attorney of New York as first hearing for witness will probably Kerkimer, Demme Hughes high along the high Sullivan, "followed by District Attorney which he was accused of lack of jurisdiction as counsel by Mr. Whitman.

AND STORE

plans dealer, has formerly occupied store at 307 will move his the new location Jackson has been since last summer an admirable rep